1 John 2:12-14 I am writing you who are God's children because your sins have been forgiven through Jesus. I am writing to you who are mature in the faith because you know Christ, who existed from the beginning. I am writing to you who are young in the faith because you have won your battle with the evil one. I have written to you who are God's children because you know the Father. I have written to you who are mature in the faith because you know Christ who existed from the beginning. I have written to you who are young in the faith because you are strong. God's word lives in your hearts and you have won your battle with the evil one.

I am sharing this text with you today because I wonder in your life, and in my own, if we are living like those who have victory? Does our life model one who has faith in a mighty God? Do people see that you place your faith in one who delivers, restores, heals and overcomes? Or do they see that you are easily beaten down by circumstances and oppression? Do people see your faith or lack of it? It is my prayer that where I have been showing fear in my life people will begin to see that I have given that fear and my life to Christ and live in victory. There is an old hymn that goes something like this:

Victory in Jesus, my savior forever, he sought me and bought me with His redeeming blood, He loved me ere I knew Him and all my love is due Him, he plunged me to victory beneath the cleansing flood.

I chose this topic today to offer hope and encouragement. It is not in our strength that we will overcome these trials and tribulations.

How? The first verse of the song speaks about that; let me share it with you.

I heard an old, old story, How a Savior came from glory, How He gave His life on Calvary to save a wretch like me; I heard about His groaning, of His precious bloods atoning, Then I repented of my sins; and won the victory.

I heard about His healing, of His cleansing power revealing. How He made the lame to walk again and caused the blind to see; and then I cried "Dear Jesus, come and heal my broken spirit" and somehow Jesus came and brought to me the victory.

We can experience peace and joy in the midst of trials and difficulties John 16:33 says "I have told you these things so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

I hope these words bring joy to your heart and hope for the future.

I have been enjoying the television series Undercover Boss these past few weeks. I lived out my own experience this past summer when I had the honor of working as a cleaner with the Parkview Field crew, the Garrett Schools construction crew and Kokomo construction clean-up crew. On each of these projects our staff taught me about the value they place in having their job at Reliable Cleaning. I heard stories about how thankful many of our people are for the income they get from this job. How they appreciate that it is low stress, easy to do, flexible and dependable. They know they can count on their pay check week after week. Our staff conveyed to me that we matter. That there is a purpose to what we do. Many of our customers value our services and appreciate when their cleaning person takes pride in their facility. On undercover boss the most significant moments of the show have come from people who really care about what they do and appreciate the opportunity to do their job well. When I see that, I tell my husband, we have that. Maybe not everyone, but most of the Reliable Cleaning Service team members, appreciate their jobs. Thank you for being a part of this company. Thank you for taking pride in your building or area, thank you for caring for your equipment. Thank you for setting the alarms. Thank you for hauling out trash to the dumpster in rain and snow. Thank you for scrubbing toilets, polishing desks, cleaning out corners, vacuuming underneath desks, wiping marks off walls, cleaning out your closet and making things shine! Thank you for putting your unique signature on the job you do each day. Your values show in the work that you do. A few newsletters ago I talked about a customer who asked if we needed a checklist and I replied no. We need a new cleaner at your site. A good employee does not need to be told what to do and what not to do. They know. They take pride in everything they touch and it shows. Thank you, if you are one of our best, for being on our team. We appreciate you.
